

ORDER SHEET
IN THE ISLAMABAD HIGH COURT, ISLAMABAD
(JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT)

W.P. no.401/2022

Muhammad Kamran versus
Additional District Judge-1 East, Islamabad and others

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
5	20.06.2023	Ch. Muhammad Atif, Advocate for the petitioner

Learned counsel at the outset states that the address of respondent no.3 ex-wife, in whose favour the decree for recovery of Rs.5,000/- and 6 tolas gold was given, is not traceable, and the service on her could not be effected as a result. He also added that the execution petition filed by the ex-wife stands consigned to record because she ceased to pursue the said execution petition. With the execution petition consigned to record, there is no real prospect of the recovery of the money and the gold from the petitioner. Resultantly, the exercise in deciding this petition may be of an academic value only, and the time to be spent in hearing and deciding this petition can usefully be spent by this Court on another case.

2 Resultantly, this petition is adjourned sine die until, if at all, the execution petition is reactivated by respondent no.3.
