ORDER

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset confronted, that how this writ petition is maintainable against the interim maintenance order. She submits that petitioner will not press this petition and will be satisfied if his financial status be considered at the time of final decrees while determining the maintenance allowance. Further requests that direction may be issued to the learned Family Court for early disposal of the main suit, which was otherwise required to be decided within period of six (06) months under the relevant law.

2. In view of above, this petition is disposed of being not pressed. However, learned Family Court will decide the matter expeditiously and also consider the stance of the petitioner regarding his financial status while determining the maintenance allowance at the time of final judgment and decree.

(Y.A.) Petition disposed of.
